Anche with the British Post Office. After an interval of 9 months he rejoined Mysore Service as a pupil teacher and was retired on 16-4-02. His service in the Mysore Anche has been verified from the Anche records. The exact circumstances under which this man severed his connexion with the British Post Office are not ascertainable. In the absence of this information the ~~Com~~ Postmaster General is not willing to accept any share of the man's pension for the very small service (a few months) rendered in his department. The Inspector General of Education recommends that the Anche Service may be counted along with the service rendered in the Education department & a gratuity given for the total service. The anche service has not been counted by the Comptr as the continuity in the man's service is not established owing to his transfer to the British Post Office from which under & unascertained circumstances he rejoined Mysore Service. The Mysore Anche service by itself qualifies and he could have got a small compensation pension if he had not taken service in the Bentick Post Office at the time of the Amalgamation. This benefit he has now lost as the Continuity in his service has not been proved. The interval being only 9 months, the Govt may regard it as a break and Condone it under art 275 i of the M.S.R., in which case the periods of 11 years each rendered before and after the interruption may be Combined and the man given a pension for the entire Service. The recommendation of the Inspector General of Education to give a gratuity for the total Service is inadmissible under art 318 M.S.R., the main Service both as a retired peon & as School master though on pay of less than 10 is Superior Service for 22 years of which pension is admissible but gratuity. The Comptr has recommended a pension of One Re 7 pies for the 11 years service rendered as in the Education Departt. If the Govt are pleased to ~~Sanc~~ Condone the break, the additional 11 years Arche Service, will increase the pension by about a Re. The man is dead and the pension is due to him only for 2 years
